So please ask someone to join that you know that is a member of All Saints Parish or give our Grand Knight or Jason Bourget a call and tell them the name of your candidate. State Deputy Dale Hofer said, “Why I am a Knight: Joining the Knights of Columbus totally changed my life. I never prayed much before becoming a Knight, other than going to church on Sundays. Now I pray daily. A big part of it has to do with the people I now surround myself with. State Deputy William Chasse said, “Why I am a Knight: I joined the Knights of Columbus after someone explained all of the charitable work of the Order Being a Knight has made me a better Catholic, as well as a better husband and father.” We need five more new members to earn the Star Council Award so please help the officers out by giving them some names.
